

JCQ Notices

All students must be familiar with the notices and instructions from JCQ (Located on the College website exams page under Information for candidates). This guidance must be adhered to.

By emailing this document to all students, and displaying it on the website Scarborough Sixth Form College has fulfilled its duty to make all students aware of these documents.