

BTEC Travel and Tourism

Introduction

In recent years reports of terrorist attacks have increased significantly. These have had a devastating effect on the victims and their families as well as deeply affecting all of us. The Travel and Tourism industry has also been affected by the growing risk to health, safety and security—a topic that we investigate in a number of units on the course.

Task

Carry out some independent research into the effects that terrorism has had on the industry and how the industry has reacted to potential attacks. For example, Tour operators now train all of their Resort Representatives in what to do in the event of a suspected attack.

You might like to consider the following sectors of the industry:

⇒ Package Holidays

⇒ City breaks

⇒ Airports and Airlines

⇒ Visitor attractions

⇒ Events

⇒ Individual destinations
